Starting today, you can see your ETIN Decertification Date in ePACES!

Starting today, you can see your ETIN Decertification Date in ePACES!

As of today, May 26th, 2016, you may now use ePACES to see when the Electronic Transmitter Identification Number (ETIN) that you are enrolled in ePACES with will be decertified. To access it,

1. Click on "Submitter" under the Support Files section on the left-hand side of the screen.
2. The ETIN and the Decertification date of the ETIN (this is the date the ETIN needs to be recertified by) will display.

Please be sure to use this information to maintain your ETIN certification as a submitter with eMedNY in order to prevent interruption of service. If your ETIN is about to expire, click here to start completing your recertification today!!
