Attention Transportation Providers

On Page 9 of the May 2019 Medicaid Update, under the subject heading “New Enhanced Mileage Accuracy Requirement for Medicaid Transportation Providers,” the following statement appears: “For trips totaling less than one mile, enter a ‘0’ before the decimal point (e.g. 0.9).”

This statement is incorrect.

For trips totaling less than one mile, do not enter a “0” before the decimal point. In the hypothetical example provided, where the enrollee was transported 9/10ths of a mile, the correct entry would be “.9.”
