NYS Medicaid Ordering/Prescribing/Referring/Attending (OPRA) Provider Enrollment Impact on Pharmacy Claims

As has been reported in previous Medicaid Updates (April 2011 and June 2012), provisions of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) require prescribers to be enrolled in state Medicaid programs to be eligible to order or refer services reimbursed by the fee-for-service (FFS) Medicaid program. This means that any practitioner not currently enrolled in NYS Medicaid must do so to continue to order or refer services for FFS beneficiaries. Effective October 2013, prescriptions written by prescribers that are not enrolled in NYS FFS Medicaid will deny at the point-of-service. Click here for more details.
