- New York City
- Poughkeepsie
- Rensselaer

eMedNY also offers webinars, a convenient training alternative that allows providers to attend training using their own computers and telephone.

*Physician Revalidation webinars are also planned for the upcoming quarter. New York State Medicaid sends a notification to providers when enrollment revalidation is required. The new course on Physician revalidation is intended to familiarize physician providers and their staff with the Medicaid enrollment revalidation process and review the resources available to accomplish revalidation successfully.
