NOTICE TO ALL USERS OF EMEDNY CAQH-CORE WEB SERVICES

The eMedNY CAQH-CORE Web Services will be enhanced to the current industry standard to use HTTP/1.1. As a result, there will be minor changes to the generated response files that come from eMedNY. This enhancement will not affect your ability to use or submit files through the service, this will only affect your response files.

We ask that you please visit www.emedny.org to obtain and review the most up-to-date eMedNY CORE Web Services User Guide or click the direct links provided. Please see "Section 14 Appendix V - Systems Changes due to migration" for detailed changes; as well as before (HTTP/1.0) and after (HTTP/1.1) response examples.
